JOINT LATIN AMERICAN EDUCATOR WORKSHOP 2017

CONTEMPORARY NATIONAL CULTURAL IDENTITY IN LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 2017
9:30 a.m.–4:00 p.m.
Saieh Hall for Economics, Room 103
University of Chicago

ISBE Professional Development Hours (PDH) Workshop

AGENDA

9:30 am    Registration and Breakfast

9:45–10:45 am    Introduction Foundation Discussion/ Icebreaker

10:50–11:40 am   “Soccer, Politics, and the Crystallization of Identity”
                 Franco Bavoni, MA’16, MAPSS, University of Chicago

11:50–12:40 pm   "Indigenous Movements in Latin America"
                 Korinta Maldonado, Posdoctoral Research Associate, Department of Anthropology/Native American Studies, University of Illinois at Urbana-
                 Champaign

12:40–1:30 pm    Lunch

1:40–2:30 pm     “Dialogue Journaling, Identity, and Community-Building in the Classroom”
                 Rebecca Linares, PhD Candidate, Department of Curriculum and Instruction, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

2:40–3:00 pm    Lesson plan development (divided by grade levels groups).

3:00–3:30 pm    Lesson plans Presentations

3:30–3:45 pm    Teaching Resources (presented by Claudia and Alejandra)

3:45–4:00 pm    Conclusion, survey
JOINT LATIN AMERICAN EDUCATOR WORKSHOP 2017

CONTEMPORARY NATIONAL CULTURAL IDENTITY IN LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 2017
9:30 a.m.–4:00 p.m.
Saieh Hall for Economics, University of Chicago

SPEAKERS

FRANCO BAVONI
MA'16, MAPSS, University of Chicago

Franco Bavoni is the Program Manager at the Katz Center for Mexican Studies at The University of Chicago, as well as a freelance editor and writer. A native of Mexico City, he holds a B.A. in International Relations from El Colegio de México and an M.A. in Social Sciences from The University of Chicago. He is the author of the book "Los juegos del hombre: identidad y poder en la cancha," in addition to several articles in which he discusses the political and social aspects of sports, particularly soccer.

REBECCA LINARES
PhD Candidate, Department of Curriculum and Instruction, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Rebecca E. Linares is a doctoral candidate in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. She will be graduating in August and joining the faculty at Montclair State University in Montclair, New Jersey in the Fall 2017. Rebecca’s research explores the intersection of language, literacy, and culture. Her research focuses specifically on the creation and maintenance of just and effective educational practices for underserved students, including Quechua-speaking students in Peru learning Spanish as a second language and transnational immigrant students in the United States learning English as a third language.

KORINTA MALDONADO
Postdoctoral Research Associate, Department of Anthropology/Native American Studies, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

Dr. Maldonado’s research centers on indigenous movements, human rights and racial formations in Latin America. She examines the Mexican multicultural state and the way the state’s multicultural languages and practices inform indigenous subjectivities. Her research in Puebla and Chiapas is the result of years of engagement and collaborative work with indigenous organizations and state sponsored indigenous institutions.

TEACHING RESOURCES
ON CONTEMPORARY NATIONAL CULTURAL IDENTITY IN LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN

We've put together some helpful resources to help educate faculty and students about different issues and topics of national cultural identity in Latin America and the Caribbean. The following sites represent a diverse array of perspectives on these issues as they play out around the region.

- VIDEOS AND FILMS:
  - “Consequences of Populism in Latin America” (Spanish)
    These videos discuss the role of populism in Latin America
    https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5DQer933j1c&list=PL05A7C22C0F17B4F0

  - On Mexico City rural/indigenous migrants “(Nowhere else to live)”
    This documentary talks about indigenous migrants in On Mexico City.
    http://search.alexanderstreet.com/view/work/1641446

  - “Black in Latin America E03, Mexico and Peru: The Black Grandma in the Closet”
    This documentary discusses being black in Mexico and Peru.
    https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JIzHIRCBtdE&t=17s

  - “On Zapatismo”
    This film discusses Zapatismo.
    https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vBqIowBEL60

  - “AfroLatinos, an Untaught History” is a documentary about the African Diaspora in Latin America. This is only the short version, to see the full version please contact Renzo@creadorpictures.tv or Jorge@creadorpictures.tvto https://vimeo.com/151897541

- Frontier Youth
  Frontier Youth follows three young people growing up in Douglas, Arizona and Agua Prieta, Mexico – neighboring towns divided by a steel border fence. As physical security along the border continues to tighten, they enter adulthood with inseparable ties to both sides.
  Trailer: https://www.newday.com/film/frontier-youth
• BOOKS

Pura Belpré Book Award's list
The Pura Belpré Award, established in 1996, is presented annually to a Latino/Latina writer and illustrator whose work best portrays, affirms, and celebrates the Latino cultural experience in an outstanding work of literature for children and youth.

http://www.ala.org/alsc/awardsgrants/bookmedia/belpremedal

“Latin American Nationalism”
This is an example of a presentation on nationalism in Latin America.

https://www.slideshare.net/ssclasstorremar/latin-american-nationalism

Tomás Rivera Book Award's list
The Tomás Rivera Mexican American Children's Book Award in 1995 to honor authors and illustrators who create literature that depicts the Mexican American experience.

http://www.education.txstate.edu/ci/riverabookaward/

Américas Award. The Consortium of Latin American Studies (CLASP) founded the Américas Award in 1993 to encourage and commend authors, illustrators and publishers who produce quality children’s and young adult books that portray Latin America, the Caribbean, or Latinos in the United States, and to provide teachers with recommendations for classroom use. CLASP offers up to two annual book awards, together with a commended list of titles.

http://www.claspprograms.org/pages/detail/37/Amricas-Award

Teaching Resources  Américas Award Curriculum
Américas Award Subject Guides Américas Award books can be useful in the classroom for teaching about a variety of subjects. The guides presented here list Américas Award winners, honorable mentions, and commended titles by subject.

Nationalism in Latin American
This is a list of books on nationalism in Latin America.

JOINT LATIN AMERICAN EDUCATOR WORKSHOP 2017

• WEBSITES

Nationalism in Latin American
This is a list of books on nationalism in Latin America.

Race Bridges Studio
This website provides tools on intercultural education.  http://racebridgesstudio.com

Indigenous languages in Mexico (Spanish)
This website has information on indigenous languages.

Consortium of Latin American Studies.  CLASP Curriculum
The curricular resources listed here span grade levels and content areas. All are produced by CLASP member institutions and are available at no cost. Those materials that have been developed with the support of National Resource Center (NRC) funding from the U.S. Department of Education are denoted by an asterisk.
http://claspprograms.org/pages/detail/80/Curriculum

• A Hidden America: Scientific and Technological Contributions of South American Pre-Hispanic Societies to Modern Life *
  Explore the scientific and technological knowledge developed by pre-Hispanic cultures in South America, focusing on agricultural, botanical, and engineering knowledge created by the Incas and indigenous groups from the Amazon.
LLILAS Benson Latin American Studies & Collections, The University of Texas

• AP Art History Resource Website *
  This website is intended for AP Art History educators teaching the newly revised curriculum effective fall 2015 in Utah, but is useful for teachers across the country. Based on a core set of 250 images, the curriculum features enhanced content on non-Western art, including resources that focus on works of art that originate in Asia, Latin America, and Africa. These resources include videos of prominent art historians discussing specific images, bibliographical references, and related online resources.
Center for Latin American Studies and the Asia Center, University of Utah

• Día de los Muertos Across the Americas *
  This comprehensive curricular resource is a collection of activities designed to be used in the Social Studies classroom. It incorporates a basic introduction to Day of the Dead in Latin America and provides insight into the tradition as it is observed in Mexico, Guatemala, Haiti, and Peru.
Stone Center for Latin American Studies, Tulane University

• Día de los Muertos Through Art and Literacy *
  This 100+ page guide introduces the historical and cultural context of Día de los Muertos and provides extensive, hands-on art and literacy exercises to bring this tradition to your classroom with sensitivity and awareness. Includes an expansive bibliography list of related materials.
Latin American & Iberian Institute, University of New Mexico

• Diversity in the Caribbean: An Interdisciplinary Approach to Teaching the Region *
  A curriculum that explores the diversity among the islands through lessons ranging from their colonization and role in US history and the global economy, to their peoples, governments, art and short stories.  Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center, Florida International University

• Introduction to Latin American Studies from Colonization to Globalization: An
JOINT LATIN AMERICAN EDUCATOR WORKSHOP 2017

Interdisciplinary Approach *
A comprehensive semester or year-long course curriculum, the perfect guide for teaching Introduction to Latin America classes.
Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center, Florida International University

Teaching Cuba: Shifting Perspectives and the Global Landscape *
This growing set of curricular resources on Cuba has been developed over the past two years in conjunction with Tulane’s annual summer teacher institute to Cuba. It contains updated resources, developed by teachers for teaching about Cuba in the K-12 classroom across disciplines.
Stone Center for Latin American Studies, Tulane University

Teaching World History: US – Haiti Relations *
A collection of lesson plans tracking US-Haiti relations by encompassing topics ranging from the Haitian Revolution and its wide-ranging effects, US occupation and policies, and migration and culture, to the struggle for Hispaniola and immigration.
Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center, Florida International University

Vamos a Leer: Teaching Latin America Through Literacy *
A blog featuring weekly reviews of Latino/a children’s books, monthly educator’s guides for young adult novels, and interviews with award-winning authors. Literacy resources are grouped according to age ranges, country focus, and themes such as art and activism, conquest and colonization, winter celebrations, and so forth.
Latin American & Iberian Institute, University of New Mexico

Viva la Revolución: An Educator’s Guide to the Mexican Revolution *
This interdisciplinary and multifaceted educator’s guide offers introductory activities and a range of curricular activities to encourage discussing the Mexican Revolution in middle and high school classrooms.
Latin American & Iberian Institute, University of New Mexico

CLASP Syllabi
For K-12 teachers interested in developing entire courses dedicated to Latin American studies, we have compiled syllabi to inspire and inform

High School Syllabi
- Introduction to Latin American Studies, An introductory Latin American studies syllabus designed by Xela Korda, Tulane University, New Orleans, LA.
- Latin American Studies 101, Latin American studies syllabus developed by Jon Dicus at the Blake School in collaboration with Tulane University, New Orleans, LA.
- Fitting Latin American Geography into Your Classes, an outline for a Latin American geography unit created by J. Timmons Robert, Tulane University, New Orleans, LA.
- Perspectives on Latin America, A Latin American studies syllabus developed by Isidore Newman school in collaboration with Tulane University, New Orleans, LA – 1999.

Middle School Syllabi
- Latin American Studies
A middle school Latin American studies course outline prepared by Eric Mackintosh, Samuel Green Middle School, in conjunction with Tulane University, New Orleans, LA, 2010.
- Teachings about Haiti
A middle school curricular unit about Haiti. Created by Eric Mackintosh, Samuel Green Middle School, in conjunction with Tulane University, New Orleans, LA, 2010.
• ARTICLES

